

Skills Summary

Over 15 years experience in IT with a unique mix of technical skills and an ability to learn and develop on the fly. Strength in the full range of systems administration tasks on most common platforms, along with web development/management skills, and excellent provision of training, documentation, and end-user support services.

Experience

Yin Yang House Media Services Group - Owner/Developer (02-Present)
Massachusetts Institute of Technology - IS Consultant III (01-06&96)
University of Arizona - Applications Systems Analyst (00-01&93-95)
University of California Santa Cruz - Computing Coordinator (99-20&97)
University of San Francisco School of Law - Network Administrator (97-98)
Michigan State University - IT Systems Analyst (89-92)

Education and Awards

Graduate Level Work in Educational Technology at the University of Arizona
Masters of Acupuncture - (8/04) - New England School of Acupuncture - Chinese Medicine
Bachelors of Science (5/95) - University of Arizona - Management Information Systems
Governor's Recognition Award (8/96) - State of Arizona - Residential Networking Project

Systems Proficiency

Operating Systems

Windows (all versions), OS X, Linux (most common distros), Solaris (all versions)

Server Systems

Windows Servers (enterprise and local), Novell Netware, Linux, Linux Parallel Clusters

Hardware

Installation and management of all common networked peripherals (printers, groupware devices, etc.)

Implementation of network infrastructures (ethernet wiring, routers, firewalls, etc.)

Software

Most popular commercial and shareware products available for all of the operating systems listed above. Additionally, graphic design and web-development applications such as Photoshop, Illustrator, Premiere, and Dreamweaver, amongst others

Programming Languages

Perl, PHP, SQL, Java, JavaScript, HTML, XML, CSS, Visual Basic, C, Shell scripting